Explanatory notes

This competence describes the ability to explain to others how to use digital media to get information about current training opportunities. It is about giving others how they can independently and effectively seek and find training opportunities.

Rationale

This competence is important in order to remain professional at the latest.

Example

A teacher explains how she regularly uses online offers to keep up to date. There is an exchange among teachers to exchange experiences.

Further training offers can be found, for example: Teacher-online-bw.de Teacher training bw.de lfb-
