Support Services

ZenDi support services are designed to help users solve problems related to digital teaching and learning tools and platforms. They include troubleshooting, problem solving and technical guidance to ensure smooth operation. They also help with the application of the software's functions. To some extent, they advise on which features might be useful for which teaching and learning purposes.

Without associated support services, the use of the infrastructure services would be impossible or at least very difficult for users.

From:
https://zendi.ph-weingarten.de/wiki/ - ZenDi Wiki

Permanent link:
https://zendi.ph-weingarten.de/wiki/en/services/support/start

Last update: 2023/10/10 15:02